Understanding Stock Classifications and the “Regulation A+ Improvement Act of 2017” Explained on the “Reg.A Money Show”

Las Vegas (12/04/2017) — The Reg.A Funding Group announced today that they have published their latest “Reg.A+ Money Show” radio podcast which discusses the various stock classifications of shares as well as explaining how the “Regulation A+ Improvement Act of 2017” will affect Reg.A+ offerings going further.

Unlike traditional crowdfunding, equity crowdfunding means you as an investor receive actual shares of stock in the offering. However, not all shares are created equally. This podcast addresses the differences of each class of stock – such as preferred, common, restricted, Class A, etc. – and what class stock should a Reg.A+ early investor insist upon receiving. In addition, an issue Reg.A+ offerings seems to be facing is many large institutional investor firms think that a maximum raise for a Reg.A+ offering isn’t high enough. That’s about to change as a House of Representatives panel recently approved a bill that would raise the limit on a Reg.A+ deal from $50 million to $75 million. Learn why this is significant to the entire Regulation A+ industry and what the future holds in terms of further limit increases.

Besides currently being heard on the iHeartRadio Network, the article announcing the news can be accessed here: <http://ipotogo.com/stockinfo>

Said “Reg.A Money Show” co-host Ron Costa, "This is great news for Reg.A+. The passing of the Regulation A+ Improvement Act of 2017 provides another positive impact for small to mid-size companies by attracting more traditional underwriters and more sophisticated investors to the Regulation A+ process."
