The “Reg.A Money Show” Publishes Podcast Detailing The Elements that Make For a Strong Regulation A+ Offering

Las Vegas (1/18/2018) — The Reg.A Funding Group announced today that they have published their latest “Reg.A+ Money Show” radio podcast which details the elements and steps required that make for a strong Regulation A+ offering.

Companies are ringing the bell on major stock exchanges, Reg.A+ “contenders” continue to move their offerings forward, celebrity brands are getting involved, and more and more companies are looking at Reg.A+ as a equity crowdfunding vehicle to raise money as a result. But what are the elements involved in creating a strong Regulation A+ offering that investors would clamor over? This “Reg.A Money Show” podcast answers that question and details some essential steps and nuances to consider for all the “Reg.A+ contenders” and anyone interested in creating a Reg.A offering to raise money for their company.

These are the critical components and elements that are essential to sets a company apart from just another “Me Too” company, instead of a company that clearly defines its goals, purposes, and tells a compelling story that fully explains the problem or issue that company is trying to solve - all without “over-selling” or embellishment.

Besides being syndicated on the iHeartRadio Network, you can access the podcast detailing this information here: <http://www.ipotogo.com/elements>

Said “Reg.A Money Show” co-host Ron Costa, “Make no mistake: If you want your investors to have confidence in your business plan, then any company who wants to succeed in Reg.A+ must heed and understand the information presented on this podcast.”
